“ Now she can see all the yard sales she wants, and make all the returns she want, always told her she needed to be buried in her phone booth with some yard sale signs and return slips, I always said to her she needed a rubber room, I'll make sure I tell her again when I get up there.

“Theresa with an H!” I can still hear her say that, as if we were never aware how her name was spelled she made it clear every time I spoke to her. I'll miss her boisterous laughter and take-no-prisoners attitude to just about everything. Theresa had a great big heart and would go out of her way to make sure you were okay. I'll miss her dearly. My sincere condolences go to her kids, grandkids and her sister, who I know must be having a tough time right now. Just keep Theresa with an H alive in your heart - you've had her there all along. God bless you, Theresa and family.
