“ Very saddened to hear about Tommy's passing. He and his brothers were a memorable part of my childhood and they always treated the little kid in the neighborhood with a lot of respect, protection, and just enough exposure to mischief. We had the chance to connect at a Foo Fighters show a few years ago and it was a blast being able to be reminisce and laugh together after a long time in between. He had such great energy. I'm glad to have known him. Condolences and prayers to Tommy's family and friends. He will be missed.

“ On behalf of the D.I.D.L we are so grateful to have known Tom and shared his love of darts and friendship. The Wednesday nights we would roll into Tony's, drink beer and break each others stones to no end, or until the sun came up, were truly awesome. Rest in peace, a true working class hero.
