“ Wanda was my first cousin and also my role model for being a class act. She was an incredible ballroom dancer, as well as a kind, generous, and loving relative who will be greatly missed by all who knew her. She astounded everyone years ago by catching a world's-record fish in North Carolina with her first husband, Arthur. We all celebrated her and her second husband Bill's 40th wedding anniversary on his 100th birthday on Dec. 22, 2019. It was an unforgettable occasion with all of their loved ones in attendance. So special!
