“ I can hardly wrap my head around it but probably like 15years ago, Bill introduced himself to me at Tony's with an American flag bandana on his head... he said 'nice to meet you beautiful, they call me Wild Bill'... I laughed and continued to laugh while he told me stories of why and taking my first shot of Maker's. He would pay me a compliment and make laugh every time I saw him, as he did with every woman he spoke to, like it was his mission in life was to make people smile.

“ This was the last time we were able to see him. He was probably swearing at us because he struggled getting Grama's balloons in the house.
