“ Our fondest memories of Bill and Cheryl were the vacations to Emerald Isle, NC. Days of fun, sun, and beach followed by evenings of wonderful food, fellowship, and laughter. Bill was always caring, friendly and quick to help me with my (ridiculously poor) golf swing. A visit to Award Connections was always a treat. Bill, John Collins and I would meet at Nick's Original Old Fashioned Roast Beef to share time, thoughts, and love. We teased each other over our ages because we were only a few months apart for birthdays. Rest in Peace, my friend & my "son." Our deepest condolences to Cheryl, Kimmy, and the entire family.

Bill and I started Delta back in 1969 within months of each other. We bonded on my first tour on the midnight shift. Early I felt a feeling of an honest relationship. I admired Bill as a person of kindness and honesty of heart. A man of no nonsense when it came to work. I felt the connection immediately. He as I, could not tolerate laziness. And we come to recognize it early in life. Bill brings a smile to me whenever I think of those times. To the family, I wish the wonderful memories of Bill will sustain you for the rest of your lives. Rest in peace Bill, we are all a piece of each others heart

“ Our hearts were just broken upon hearing this incredibly sad news. I'm one of many who worked with Bill at the Philly airport for Delta. He was a friend to all...such a kind and gentle person with a steady demeanor and an unshakeable spirit. Even on those most difficult days dealing with weather delays and mechanicals, we'd always find things to laugh about. Bill had such a great sense of humor. He was a master at checking in a flight at the gate...perhaps THE master of gate checkin. Everything was always in order and Bill was always in control. I just enjoyed the heck out of working with him. I hold all of Bill's dear family in my heart and am praying for you all to feel the very real presence of the Lord in your lives during this most difficult and sad time. Please know that your loved one was also loved by so many of us out here on the fringe of your lives. I'll always cherish the time that was allotted to share the walk together with Bill. Rest in Eternity, dear gentle brother. With much love and prayers for comfort, healing and peace. Dan Daggendorf, 17 Betts Drive, Washington Crossing, Pa.
